 SQUARE FOOTAGE.....2,100 SQ. FT.

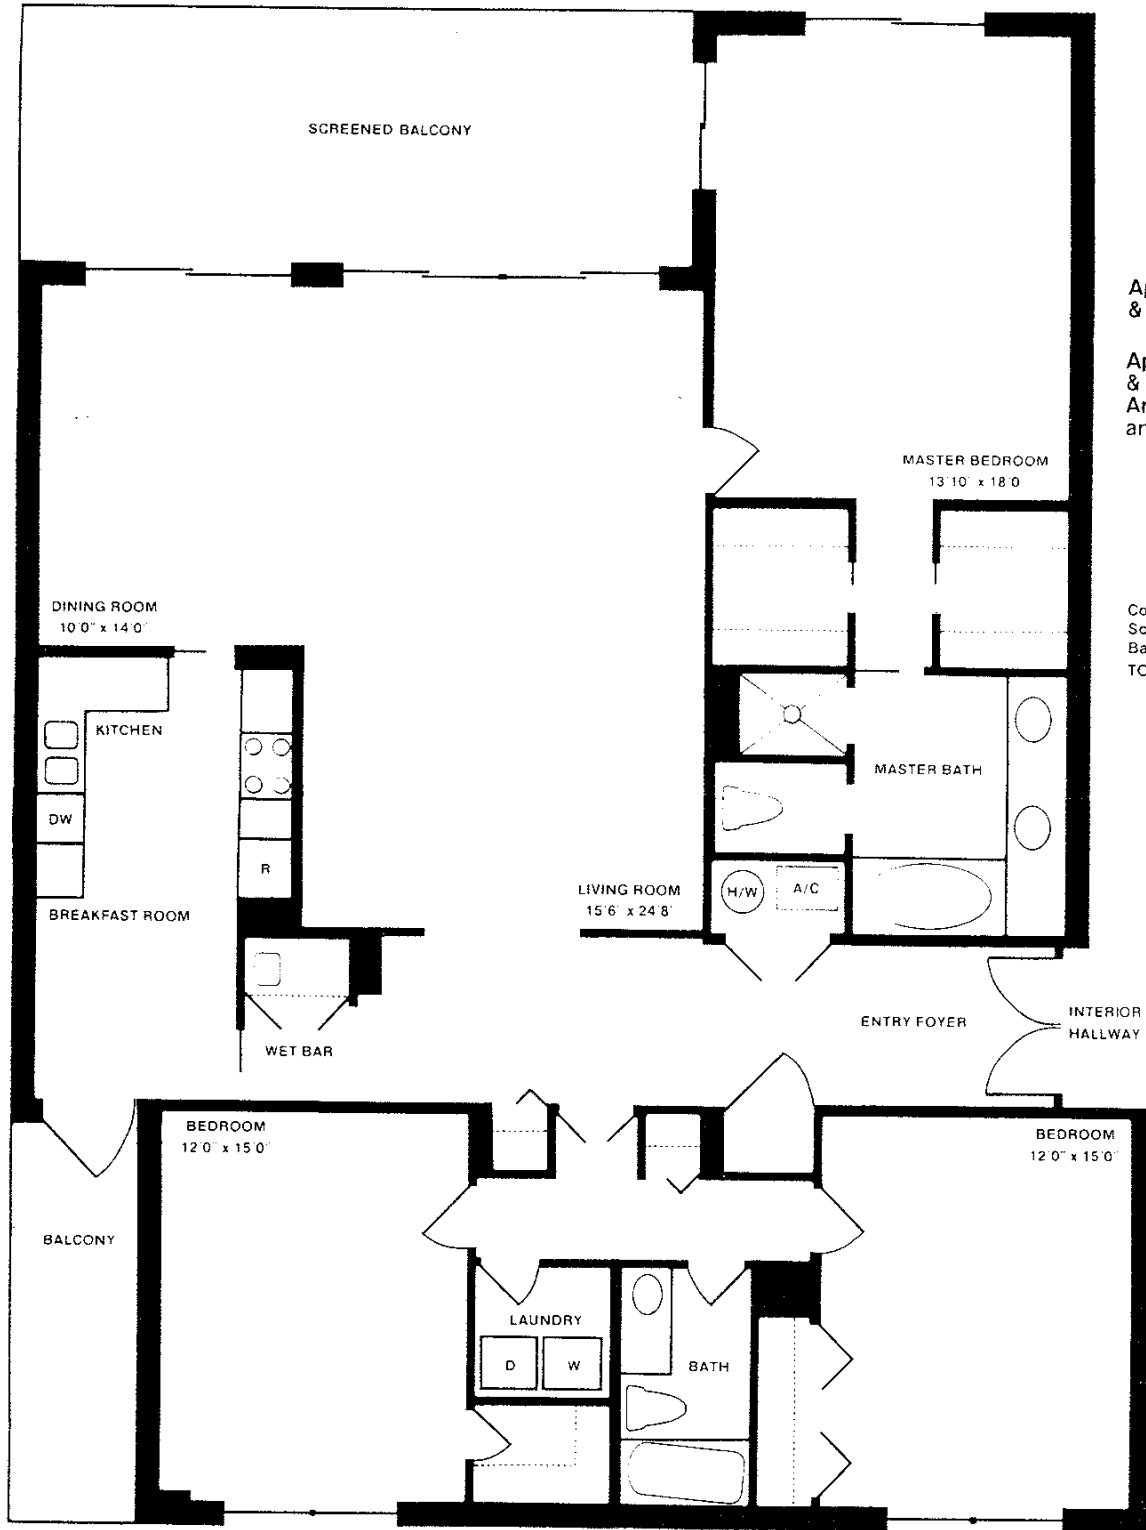

For convenience and for the purpose of comparison, the "cooled area" sq. footage of the condominium units to which references are made was approximated by using the dimensions from the exterior surface of outside walls of the unit and from the center line of the walls between adjacent units. The square footage conveyed in the unit is determined in accordance with the description of the unit boundaries as set forth in the Declaration of Condominium.

All room sizes and square footage are approximate. Actual units may vary slightly, and modifications may be made as deemed necessary by the developer, builder, architect, engineer or as required by law.
